

RQ2

1. A decision hyperplane is a plane that the weight vector w is perpendicular to with intercept b . Feature space contains all feature vectors.
2. Text classification with largest decision boundaries.
3. Computing with kernel function helps expedite the transformation to higher dimension feature space.
4. Soft-margin SVMs minimize training error traded off against margin.